

EXPORTS: Building Locally, Exporting Globally

Global Automakers' members are exporting record numbers of American-made automobiles from the U.S. to countries around the world. The production* of these vehicles takes place at our members' 27 manufacturing facilities in America.

Exported nearly 480,000 vehicles
in 2014.

Free Trade = More Exports
Free trade has helped to increase exports from our members' U.S. auto plants, strengthening the auto industry as a whole.

American-made vehicles were exported to more than 60 countries.

* Vehicles built in the United States using domestic and globally sourced parts.

Source: 2014 Economic Impact Survey of Global Automakers' members.

About Global Automakers | The Association of Global Automakers represents international motor vehicle manufacturers, original equipment suppliers, and other automotive-related trade associations. We work with industry leaders, legislators, and regulators to create the kind of public policy that improves vehicle safety, encourages technological innovation, and protects our planet. Our goal is to foster a competitive environment in which more vehicles are designed and built to enhance Americans' quality of life. Learn more at www.globalautomakers.org and follow us at @globalautomkr and facebook.com/GlobalAutomakers.